MOONWATCHER Unit: User's Guide & Manuel

generalgoblin7

Thank you for purchasing the MOONWATCHER unit! Your new MOONWATCHER unit is sure to meet your expectations with top quality performance.
==========
Model line: NIGHTWING
Unit: MOONWATCHER
Set: Jade Winglet
Height: Three scavengers tall
Weight: Approximately one and a half elephants

Your MOONWATCHER unit comes with:
(1) skyfire bracelet

Special features:
The MOONWATCER unit is one of two units in the NIGHTWING model line that has been programmed with mind-reading and future-vision.

Mind-reading
Your MOONWATCHER unit is able to hear whatever you're thinking about at the moment. To prevent the psychological trauma she will no doubt develope, we recommend either giving her the skyfire bracelet or wearing it yourself to handicap this application.

Future-vision
Your MOONWATCHER unit is sometimes able to see visions of the future. She cannot summon visions at will, however, so don't try to pressure her into giving you the lottery results.

Unpacking and rebooting
The MOONWATCHER unit is docile, but very shy, so it will be difficult to lure her out of her package. To help you safely remove your unit with minimal complications we have provided the following methods for unpacking and rebooting for your convenience:

1. Call over a friend to assist you with this one. Lull your MOONWATCHER unit into a false sense of security by having your friend call out for them in a reassuring tone. When your MOONWATCHER unit emerges, leap out of your hiding place and club her over the head. While she is unconcious, you can safely access her mainframe to reboot.

2. Bake a pineapple cake laced with smokeberry juice and lay it out for and wait for your your MOONWATCHER unit. After she creeps out and eats it, it will only be a matter of minutes before the smokeberry juice's hallucinogenic properties take effect. While she is wondering whether or not the giant mushroom she's seeing is friendly, sneak up behind her to access her mainframe to reboot.

Recommended companion units:
Should you wish to purchase other units to keep your MOONWATCHER unit company, we recommend the following:

KINKAJOU unit:
The KINKAJOU unit and MOONWATCHER unit are best rainbow sparkle sunshine friends. The two are basically joint at the hip, The KINKAJOU unit fully supports the MOONWATCHER unit in every way. A romantic relationship may be difficult to initiate, but once it gets takes off, it should be smooth sailing.

WINTER unit:
The WINTER unit and MOONWATCHER unit share a slightly complex relationship. Although the MOONWATCHER unit likes the WINTER unit well enough, the WINTER unit has trouble making up his mind about the MOONWATCHER unit. A romantic relationship may be difficult because of this, but if the stars are properly aligned and the correct sacrifices offered, you may be able to find the WINTER unit in the correct mood to finally kick off his relationship with the MOONWATCHER unit.

QIBLI unit
The MOONWATCHER unit is the John Watson to the QIBLI unit's Sherlock Holmes.
The MOONWATCHER unit respect the QIBLI unit's intelligence, and the QIBLI unit thinks that the MOONWATCHER unit veiws the MOONWATCHER unit as an adorable cinnamon bun that is too precious for this world.
A romantic relationship between the two will work out very well, given enough encouragement.

TURTLE unit:
The MOONWATCHER is mildly suspicious of the TURTLE unit, but she thinks he's mostly harmless and friendly. She may be a little uncomfortable around him, but the two are friendly enough. Given enough time, a romantic relationship is possible between them.

It should be noted that you should not purchase a MOONWATCHER unit if you already own one of the following:

-MORROWSEER unit
-ICICLE unit

My QIBLI and WINTER units are fighting over the MOONWATCHER unit - again. Should I interfere, or should I let them deal with their emotions like regular units?

(Also, note: You forgot the hygiene and exercise part of these posts, but still really well-written, yet again. I just jotted it down in case you wanted to write one for her.)

I have an ICICLE unit, but I also have a WINTER unit. I have just now ordered my MOONWATCHER unit, and a KINKAJOU unit is on her way here. But when my ICICLE unit approached my MOONWATCHER unit, the WINTER unit smacked my ICICLE unit, and my ICICLE unit is non-responsive. Little help?

Dear WoF Units Co.,
My MOONWATCHER unit is getting along very well with my other units so far, but...my QIBLI unit continues to flirt. My WINTER unit continues to glare at him from the sidelines, and tries to sometimes bite QIBLI when he thinks I'm not looking. Recently, my MOONWATCHER unit shut down to keep out of the bickering, but my WINTER unit keeps coming into my room to check on her, INCLUDING WHEN I AM TRYING TO SLEEP. My QIBLI unit is continually pacing my house in hysteric fits, convinced that it's his fault and is short-circuiting. My KINKAJOU unit is in depression, and GLORY continually but to no avail tries to comfort her. The recent shut down of MOONWATCHER is affecting all of my other units. How do I get MOONWATCHER back on?
Sincerely,
Gray

Hi,
I recently got a MOONWATCHER unit, a QIBLI unit, a KINKAJOU unit, a WINTER unit, and a TURTLE unit. One day, I came home and all the males were flirting with the MOONWATCHER unit, and the KINKAJOU unit would not stop following WINTER around and saying something about him being shiny. The next day, there were three smoking piles of rubble, my KINKAJOU had disappeared without a trace, and MOONWATCHER had shut down out of depression. Help!

Dear wolfdawn255,

Whatever you do, DO NOT GO TO HISTORY CLASS.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear dragonwolf 10563,

As the owner of the units, it is up to you to decide on whether or not to take action. Interference is only explicitly recommended if the units are attempting to murder eachother (given the situation, this shouldn't take long).

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

=========

Dear bluedragon4420,

We regret to inform you that there is nothing we can do about that. Try locking them in the basement together until they sort their feelings out.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

Dear dragonheart1973,

==========

Dear bluedragon4420,

In light of dragonheart1973's situation, we would like to revise our earlier advice. DO NOT LEAVE YOUR WINTER UNIT AND QIBLI UNIT ALONE TOGETHER.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear icewings142,

We assure you that this behavior is completely normal. Nothing to worry about, unless they start murdering eachother.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear islandwolf86,

Give him a pep talk or something.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear grayelf106,

If your MOONWATCHER unit underwent shut herself down to keep out the bickering between your WINTER unit and QIBLI unit, the only way to turn her back on is to eliminate the bickering. Sit down with your QIBLI unit and WINTER unit and help them talk out their feelings. We recommend immobilizing them for the duration of the discussion.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear rainwings158,

You can track your KINKAJOU unit by entering its product number into the tracking section of the official WoF Units application. Once your KINKAJOU unit is back, your MOONWATCHER unit should perk up. As for the othes, we reccomend order more units.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear purpledragon1888,

Probably so. Your DARKSTALKER unit may be immobilized and unable to get himself out of wherever he's managed to get himself stuck in.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

Dear WoF Units Co.,

My MOONWATCHER unit has been walking around the past few days covered in glitter. Meanwhile, my supply of glitter has mysteriously vanished. Also, my KINKAJOU unit will not stop squealing in apparent joy, the majority of my other units seem to be giggling, and my supply of sequins has recently vanished as well. I fear for my various other sparkly art supplies, and also for my eyes, as constantly seeing flashy, shiny, sparkly, or otherwise blindingly bright things and my KINKAJOU unit's constant hot pink colouration cannot be good for them. Please advise.

Sincerely, Flight

Dear WoF Units Co.,
My recently bought MOONWATCHER UNIT has shut down. My WINTER and QUIBLI units are constantly fighting. My TURTLE unit stares around into the sky a lot of the time, muttering something about power and fire, scratching things with his talons. My KINKAJOU unit is always either jumping on my shut down MOONWATCHER unit or trailing after my WINTER and QUIBLI units. My MORROWSEER unit is always inspecting my MOONWATCHER unit and saying, "She never told me." My ICICLE unit is always banging my WINTER unit. Will you please tell me the problem and tell me what I can to do?

Dear jadewolf1791,

Gee, you people are incredibly paranoid, aren't you? Your unit does something completely innocent and suddenly it's like the Apocalypse. Your MOONWATCHER unit is just giggling. Dear queenblizzard3,

Well, that really depends on the prophecy. Maybe she's predicting that you'll move to Cleveland, or maybe she's predicting that you'll be killed by a random turtle falling out of the sky. Pay close attention to what she says and gather a team of adolescent dragons of various origins to carry out the prophecy.

A Letter floats through the a door that shuts and disappears

Dear MOONWATCHER Unit Creators,

I recently purchased three EGG Unit's for my ARCTIC and FOELSLAYER Unit's, but my MOONWATCHER Unit, who I have had for around four years, decided to lock one of the EGG Unit's in my attic and refuses to open the door. What I recall the EGG Unit looking like was a lovely silver with a few white flecks across the bottom, when I have tried to open the attic door, my MOONWATCHER Unit attacks me, but does no harm apart from pinning me down with her wings and tieing a blindfold around my face, locking me in my room for an hour. She does have a skyfire bracelet, so I know she isn't reading my mind. What should I do? This MOONWATCHER Unit is also a prototype, should I take her back? I don't want to due to her and me having formed a close bond that took close to three years to forge from the fire. She also tends to try to fight my other Unit's if they come near me, excluding the JADE WINGLET Unit's, although she has shown unusual feelings related to hatred towards any TURTLE Unit's, although I assume this is due to her relationship with the KINKAJOU Unit that belongs to my friend next door.

My DARKSTALKER unit has put my TURTLE unit into a cage and removed it's magic. Meanwhile, my MOONWATCHER unit has no idea what is going on, and while being wary of the DARKSTALKER unit at intervals, is still friendly with it. Would it be advisable to tell the MOONWATCHER unit of the DARKSTALKER unit's recent activity?
